

Patti Dahl

God gave Patti Dahl a vision, a strong contralto voice, and artistic ability. She has combined all three aspects of these blessings to glorify God and give back every good thing that He has bestowed upon her.

She started Heartsong in 1999 with a few cover songs, a burning desire to minister, and a vision for the multitudes to come to Jesus. That vision started out with humble beginnings in central Connecticut, and it has expanded to national and international recognition. It's not the recognition that was important, but the fact that more and more could be ministered to through the expanse of radio and television, and published original music. Patti has over 30 published country gospel songs and she's still going strong.

Patti was raised on country music. Her parents took her Grand Ol' Opry every year and it was the 'greats' on that stage that helped influence the direction of her ministry.

She knows there are some things about the presentation on stage that are eternal: humble yourself, love the audience, and give them four dollars worth of sequins!

Kerin Arsenault

When most people marvel at a tiffany setting in a wedding ring, the first thing that comes to mind is the craftsmanship and the simple beauty of the singular stone. When Kerin Arsenault joined Heartsong, she was already that diamond in a tiffany setting. Audiences marvel at her talent, versatility, and ever expanding love for the brethren. Kerin's musical career, birthed out of the pressures of life-changing events and finding peace with God, brought her from coal to diamond in just a few short years.

Her experience on stage as a worship leader and solo artist has enabled her to grace the altars of some of New England's most powerful churches.

Kerin's humility and love for the Lord has enabled her to speak at conferences, lead worship for conventions and greatly inspire in her own church as well.

Heartsong is blessed to have Kerin Arsenault. She is much more than a BARNABAS. She does more than just 'come along side by side'. She truly is that diamond with many facets of talent and grace.

Dan Arsenault

Dan Arsenault is our youngest member of Heartsong....but don't let that fool you. Dan can hold his own. Dan's sweet and subtle demeanor can rock a house and hold an audience of any age right until the very end.

Dan is a true songster for the Lord. There has been a deep reservoir of talent and drive that has been deposited into his spirit. Audiences can easily pick up on that fact and it doesn't even need to be stated...it's just there and it bubbles over when he begins to sing.

Dan began singing and leading worship when training wheels were still on his bicycle. It was not long before he was in demand. Bands and teams from across New England were requesting his assistance in some lofty endeavors that many older folks in the body of Christ still thirst to do.

When God appoints, HE anoints. This is very obvious about Dan's calling.

We have an little secret in Heartsong. Dan also answers to his nickname, 'Curly'.
